

SOCIAL MEDIA ETC STATEMENT

TO ALL CREW MEMBERS AND INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED IN THE PROGRAMME PLEASE NOTE AS FOLLOWS:

NO USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA - You must not, without the Production's prior written consent, make any statement, announcement or give any information directly or indirectly relating to the Programme, any individual engaged in the making of the Programme, the terms of your agreement with the Production, the internal affairs of the Production or the commercial relationship of the Production to any financing partner (including any broadcaster or distributor):

- (i) to any journalist, critic or correspondent of any newspaper or publication,
- (ii) to any person, firm or company by whom or in any circumstances in which the repetition or publication of any such statement might reasonably be anticipated, or
- (iii) on any on-line messaging service, website, blog, social network (including, but not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, Google Plus and YouTube) or any other internet or intranet-based form, regardless of whether such statement, announcement or comment is directed to one or more specific persons and regardless of whether such statement, announcement or comment can only be accessed by a limited group of people.

NO PHOTOGRAPHS/RECORDINGS - You must not at any time take any photographs or make any recordings of any activity relating to the Programme, the individuals engaged in relation to it or things coming into your possession or control by reason of your involvement with the Programme without the prior written consent of the Company and nor shall you, at any time, do anything detrimental to or say anything detrimental about the Programme, the Production or any persons involved in or associated with the same.

Please note that any breach of the above will be a breach of the terms of your contract with the Production Company in relation to the Programme.
